A Harmony of the Synoptic Gospels in Greek

By ERNEST D. BURTON and EDGAR J. GOODSPEED

$3.00, postpaid $3.15

¶ The problem of determining the relations of our first three gospels to one another, and ascertaining their sources, though studied for over a century, is one that is still but partially solved. Yet on its solution depends the decision of many important questions concerning early Christian thought and especially the teaching of Jesus. The purpose of this volume is to facilitate that careful comparison of the several gospels, sentence by sentence, even word by word, which is the first condition of success in the study of the mutual relation of the gospels, and an indispensable basis for advanced study of their contents.

A GUIDE TO THE STUDY OF THE CHRISTIAN RELIGION

Edited by GERALD BIRNEY SMITH

Professor of Christian Theology, University of Chicago

The past quarter of a century has seen remarkable growth in theological knowledge and an unusual change in the points of view. Biblical and theological scholars have worked out new methods of studying old subjects which have led to surprisingly fruitful results. The editor of the present volume has compiled a comprehensive survey of this field by twelve well-known scholars.

The Revelation of John

By SHIRLEY JACKSON CASE

*Professor of Early Church History and New Testament
Interpretation in the University of Chicago*

The central idea of the book is to explain the meaning of Revelation as its author intended it to be understood by those to whom it was first addressed. Few people know when or why it was written, and its specific reference to a millennium has made it much quoted in support of strange theories about the imminent end of the world.

The volume has been prepared especially to meet the needs of the preacher and the layman who desire a popular rather than a highly technical treatment of the subject. Especial attention is given to the explanation of such items as the "Beast," the anticipated end of the world, the millennium, and the new Jerusalem.

The Code of Hammurabi, King of Babylon

Edited by ROBERT FRANCIS HARPER

Second Edition

The monument on which the Code of Hammurabi is engraved was found in December, 1901, and January, 1902, on the acropolis of Susa by an expedition sent out by the French government under the Director General M. de Morgan.

This volume contains a transliteration and translation of that text, together with photographs and autographed copies of the columns on which Hammurabi, some 2,250 years before the Christian era, inscribed a codification of the existing laws of his people. In addition there are lists of proper names, signs, numerals, corrections, and erasures, a glossary, an index of subjects which will prove of service to those interested in this ancient lawgiver's code.
